

Core Value Definitions

Compassion

Compassion is defined as demonstrating Christ-like love and concern in our relationships and service to others. To be compassionate is to be: kind, helpful, respectful, empathetic, graceful, patient, tender, responsive, and warm.

Honesty

Honesty is defined as having integrity and being true and open in relationships, methods of communication, and decision-making. To be honest is to be: truthful, genuine, sincere, candid, fair, trustworthy and accountable.

Enthusiasm

Enthusiasm is defined as an attitude of excitement, celebration, and purpose in relating to others and completing tasks. To be enthusiastic is to be: joyful, happy, spirited, positive, committed, devoted, friendly, and eager.

Efficiency

Efficiency is defined as using the resources available in the most effective manner to advance our mission and better serve others. To be efficient is to be: productive, resourceful, team-oriented, competent, organized, skillful, and knowledgeable.

Creativity

Creativity is defined as opening the mind and spirit to new thoughts, feelings, and behaviors. To be creative is to be: innovative, changing, growing, seeking, teachable, original, imaginative, and flexible.